Dennis Schröter:

This is typical motorsport. Even if only a 5% piece is missing you still don't get 95%. I qualified good in 3rd., my speed in warm-up practice was competitive, I pulled 2 mega holeshots, did the fastest race lap only to get arm pump after 5 minutes and that was it. I knew before that I wouldn't be able to race with Steve and Markus, and also Xavier isn't currently 4th. in the MX2 GPs, but I was still hoping for a top 5 result if everything went according to plan (if, if...) Anyway, my bike with Schäfer head and AKRAPOVIC is awesome off the gate, and we have the suspension dialled, the rest is up to me and I'm sure I will sort things out shortly.

Michael Kaussen:

Everything's new to me this year, so my goal was to qualify and to gain as much experience from the races as possible. I didn't qualify directly and had to do the LCQ, but did okay finishing 4th. My first start was bad and I never found a rhythm, but things went a lot better in moto 2. I was close to getting points and I'm satisfied. One more race in the sand in Templin next week and then I'm looking forward to racing on hard pack tracks again.

NEXT RACE:

TEMPLIN DM 125
