Dennis Schröter: Of course I had hoped for a better end of the season! Qualification went ok, 9th wasn't fantastic but the gap wasn't that big either. I had told myself to stay smooth and relaxed in the first moto, which worked as I had no arm-pump and still felt good afterwards. For the 2nd heat I wanted to attack right from the start, but that really backfired: after 2 heavy crashes I had to pull out.
Now I will still ride the last race of the German Enduro Championships before my season is over.

Lars Oldekamp: I'm satisfied with my riding and my fitness, not with the results though. In the first race I crashed three times and had to fight my way back up to the front each time, in the second moto I 'only' crashed once.
I'm a little disappointed that my racing season is already over, now that I'm back at race speed. I will do one or two local 2-hour races before I will have a small brake and then my preparation for 2010 will already start.
