Hendrik Nolting (team - manager):

This was Lars' first race after his injury this spring. He had started riding 3 weeks ago and was looking forward to racing again, as he had used the time off the bike with intense fitness training.

Of course he's disappointed with the result, but in reality we knew that the competition had also improved in the meantime. Lars complained that he never found a rhythm all weekend long and that good lap-times have always been destroyed by small mistakes.

Nonetheless we believe that everything is going in the right direction, all Lars needs now is races to get back to a competitive speed level; we can't wait for the next weekend to see how he will do in the ADAC Youngster Cup in Holzgerlingen.

Dennis Schröter is also riding again, but the only championship still intact after his injury is the Dutch Open, where he's currently 4th with 4 races remaining. So he will rather compete in Holland than in the ADAC - Masters.

Unfortunately Michael Kaussen, our support-rider, broke his collarbone last weekend in Thurm in the final round of the German 125 championship, so his season is
