Dennis Schröter:

First of all I have to say thank you to Bert von Zitzewitz and his team for their support. We've had a very close relationship between our teams for years both professionally and personally, and I was glad to be racing instead of sitting at home.

Of course I benefited from the ground being sandy, but it wasn't a cakewalk at all, I crashed twice in the tests and had to give it all to pull it off in the end. I came here prepared, with my suspension, AKRAPOVIC, TALON wheels and my MAGURA bars I felt right at home on my bike.

I will race the last round of the Enduro championship in Zschopau as well, but it won't be as easy, especially Markus Kehr will do everything to stop me from winning on his home soil.

But now I'm looking forward to racing the last round of the ADAC MX MASTERS in Höchstädt this coming weekend.
